CAST OF 'HEARTBREAK HOUSE'
ANNOUNCED BY UM DRAMA DEPARTMENT

MISSOULA--

The cast for the December production of George Bernard Shaw's "Heartbreak House" has been announced by the University of Montana Department of Drama.

The play, set in pre-World War I England, will run Dec. 4-7 in the University Theater.

The cast includes: Bill Powell, Missoula; Kent Epler, Helena; Lee Erpenbach, Billings; Linda Jordan, Great Falls, and, from out-of-state communities, Kimberly Waters, Amboy, Ind; Ken Ott, Yonkers, N.Y.; and Mary Kay Harris, San Francisco, Calif.

Several assistant professors of drama from UM will be in charge of various aspects of "Heartbreak House." R. Naidia Mosher will direct the play. Adel Migid is set designer and Stephanie Schoelzel is in charge of designing costumes.

The general public's $12 season tickets for six admissions to the UM drama department productions may be obtained from the department office, room 201 of the Fine Arts Building. The season ticket rate for UM students is $7. Special group discounts also are available.
